ASIAN CYCLING CONFEDERATION (ACC)

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

IDENTITY – PURPOSES

ARTICLE 1

The name of the Confederation shall be the “ASIAN CYCLING CONFEDERATION” (hereinafter referred to as “ACC”).

ARTICLE 2

The headquarters of the ACC shall be located in the country of the President. He shall be the custodian of the properties and the records of ACC. The Congress is solely empowered to change the Headquarters.

ARTICLE 3

The purposes of the ACC are:

- a) To promote and develop the sports of cycling in all its forms and levels in Asia;
- b) To assist the International Cycling Union (UCI) in controlling and regulating the sports of cycling in the Asian continent and to help solve differences that may arise between affiliated federations;
- c) To organize and/or to grant and award the organization of the Continental Cycling Championships, Mountain Bike Championships, Indoor Cycling Championships, Cycle-Cross Championships, BMX Championships or any other Asian level cycling activity to a member federation of ACC at the terms and conditions to be stipulated by the Management Committee of ACC;

- d) To help the UCI in the technical supervision of cycling events in the Asian Cycling Championships, Asian Games and other Regional Events in Asia held in accordance with the Rules and Statutes of the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and the UCI;
- e) The ACC is a non-profit and voluntary confederation composed of National Cycling Federations in Asia, which governs all cycling sport disciplines at all levels;
- f) All National Cycling Federations duly accepted as members of the International Cycling Union (UCI) within the Asian region shall be eligible for membership, provided that only one federation from each country shall be admitted as a member;
- g) To represent the sport of cycling and defend its interests before the International Cycling Union and all National Cycling Federations in Asia;
- h) The constitution and regulations of the federation shall not run counter to both the Constitution and Regulations of the ACC and the UCI. In case of divergence, only the latter shall apply.
- i) The federations must manage their internal affairs with total independence and ensure that no third party interferes in their operations. They must remain autonomous and resist all political, religious and financial pressure which may infringe their commitment to abide by the Constitution of the UCI. Any external form of interference or attempt to interfere must be reported to the UCI.
- j) The constitution and regulations of the federations must make provision for an election or intern appointment system that ensures a complete independence of the national federation vis-à-vis third parties. In particular, the federations shall not allow governments and other public authorities to appoint members of the governing bodies of a federation.
- k) The federations are obliged to include the provisions contained in paragraphs i) and j) in their constitution.

[Entry into force: Federations that are candidates for affiliation as from 1 October 2010 and whose constitution does not contain such provisions will have their affiliation refused by the UCI. Federations that are already members of the UCI will benefit from a time limit until 31 December 2012 to incorporate these provisions into their constitution.]

- 1) Any federation's decisions, elections and bodies that are not in compliance with paragraphs i) and j) shall not be recognized by the UCI. If the situation is not regularized within the time limit granted by the president of the UCI, the national federation may be suspended.

MEMBERSHIP

ARTICLE 4

- 1) No federation shall be barred from membership in the ACC or participation in any Asian Cycling events on political, religious, racial grounds, or other discrimination.
- 2) All members shall comply with the Constitution and Regulations of the ACC as well as the UCI.
- 3) Any National Cycling Federation wishing to be affiliated with the ACC shall file an application with the President in writing signed by the President and Secretary General of the National Cycling Federation, enclosing its Constitution & Bye-Laws, list of telephone fax, telex number and cable address and a list of its committee. All particulars should be submitted in English to the Headquarters of the ACC.
- 4) Upon provisional approval from the Management Committee, the President or Secretary General shall notify the affiliated federation whether it is in favor of accepting the application for membership of an applicant federation. The applicant federation may be considered as a provisional affiliated member until its application is ratified at the ACC Congress and UCI Congress.

- 5) No Federation shall be affiliated to the ACC and at the same time to any other organization or such other organizations as deemed inconvenient–inexpedient by the Management Committee.
- 6) The suspension as a member of the UCI automatically involves the suspension as a member of the Continental Confederation.

The Management Committee of the UCI shall place on the agenda of the next Congress the suspension of a member which is under a suspension by the ACC congress.

In addition, the Congress may suspend a member of the Continental Confederation in the following cases:

- a) In case of non–payment of the membership contribution to the Continental Confederation or subscription due to UCI for two years;
